

Puppy Jumping

Jumping up can be dangerous as well as annoying. Just as many owners are sued for their jumping dogs as their biting dogs. Young children and elderly people can easily be toppled over and seriously injured by exuberant, friendly dogs. Start now to teach Puppy not to jump up. Even little dogs can cause problems and injury to themselves and others when they leap and jump around.

Puppy Jumping Do's

Gently and repetitively place Puppy's feet back on the floor and reward him/her there.

Be consistent.

Get down to his/her level to give affection and attention.

Puppy Jumping Don'ts

Do not allow Puppy to jump up. Do not pet, talk, cuddle or reward him/her for jumping.

Do not allow other people to let Puppy to jump on them.
